

STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Texas is a land of unparalleled natural beauty. From rolling hills to scenic cliffs, the great outdoors are ours to treasure and enjoy.

Participation in outdoor activities benefits us all. From health-related benefits to recreational pursuits, the great outdoors are avenues of enjoyment and entertainment.

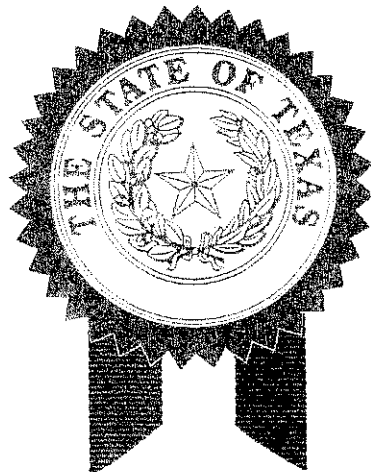

Whether boating, fishing, hiking or biking, outdoor activities abound throughout the Lone Star State from the Panhandle to the plains.

To raise awareness of the importance of our great outdoors, the month of June, which heralds the advent of summer, has been designated for an education campaign.

Let us enjoy our great state and all that it offers, practicing wise stewardship and treasuring it for the generations to come.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim June 2007,

Great Outdoors Month

in Texas, and urge the appropriate recognition whereof.

In official recognition whereof,
I hereby affix my signature this the 8th day of May, 2007.

Rick Perry
Governor of Texas
